

Transforming Challenges into Breakthroughs

The Human Capital Breakthrough Award journey begins in 2013. The second edition came in 2015 and apart from focusing on the enhancement of human capital practices, it also focus on business management breakthroughs.

Interestingly, the main breakthrough targets were the enhancement of employee engagement, recruitment, retention, talent management and breakthrough in technology. The 360 Human Capital and Productivity Breakthrough Award (360 BA) encourages people and human resources (HR) practices in Singapore to keep pace with a rapidly changing global business and sharpen companies' competitive edge.

Eng Kong is proud to be one of the award winning recipients, having being awarded the Highest Honor, the Titanium Award, among the few hundreds participating companies. This award has positioned Eng Kong well as it continues to develop industry standards and delivers value to its clients in the region

